

Development of the labour market forecasting system

Status: In progress
Published: 25.01.2017.

ESF projects (year 2014 - 2020)

NACIONĀLAIS
ATTĪSTĪBAS
PLĀNS 2020

EIROPAS SAVIENĪBA
Eiropas Sociālais
fonds

I E G U L D Ī J U M S T A V Ā N Ā K O T N Ē

Summary of the project No. 7.1.2.2./16/l/001 „Development of the labour market forecasting system”

| | |
|--|--|
| Sub-activity of the operational program, within which ESF funding is granted | 1. Operational Programme "Growth and Employment" 7.1.2. Objective of the specific support - "Developing a pre-emptive system for labour market transformations, ensuring its link with the Employment barometer" 7.1.2.2. measure "Labour Market pre-emptive redeployment system implementation" |
| Implementer | The project is implemented by the State Employment Agency in cooperation with the Ministry of Economics (cooperation partner) |
| Place of implementation | The territory of the Republic of Latvia |
| Period of implementation | 65 months 17.08.2016-31.12.2021 |
| Objective | To create a Job preemptive redeployment scheme, in order to make informed decisions appropriate for economic needs to provide development and implementation of the policy. The labor market transformation preemptive system will provide easy and transparent information on skills and professions demanded in both short, as well as and medium and long-term, as well as information on learning opportunities, which will facilitate future career choices of users. |

| | |
|------------------------|--|
| Activities | During project implementation the following steps will be implemented: A study on the labor market transformation preemptive system development, and on the link between market forecasts and working policies has been carried out; A short-term labor market forecasting methodology, including short-term projections on a skills perspective and guidance for methodology users has been provided; Five employer surveys for renewing for labour market short-term forecasts have been carried out; Technical specification for the creation of labour supply and demand projections in the display platform (including a medium and long-term forecasting and analysis tool visual solution (prototype)) has been created; Informational and training measures for employment policy development and implementation for the employees and officials of involved institutions have been implemented. |
| Target group | Employment policy development and implementation institutions involved; State Employment Agency officials and employees; officials and employees of the Ministry of Economics. |
| Funding | Total project costs 1 487 720 EUR Total eligible project costs 1 487 720 EUR Eligible ESF co-funding EUR 1 264 562 EUR National eligible co-funding 223 158 EUR |
| Expected results | Outcome indicators: document necessary for the labour market pre-emptive rearrangement system - 3; Result indicator: a labor market transformation preemptive system has been established. |
| Additional information | Information on the projects implemented during the planning period 2007-2013: „Development of the State Employment Agency labour market forecasting and monitoring system” and the project of the Ministry of Economics “Development of medium-term and long-term labour market demand forecasting system” |

Contact person:

Eva Lapsiņa

Department of EU fund projects project manager

Phone: 67021772

E-mail: Eva.Lapsina@nva.gov.lv

Related documents:

Regulation No.129 of the Cabinet of Ministers on “The operational program “Growth and Employment” 7.1.2. objective of the specific support "Developing a pre-emptive system for labour market transformations, ensuring its link with the Employment barometer" 7.1.2.2. measure "Labour Market pre-emptive redeployment system implementation" implementation regulations”.

<https://www.nva.gov.lv/en/node/245>